

Gerkin language

Feature: Register and login functionality of nob commerce site

Scenario: user able to login

Given: user is on login page

When: User type username

And: User type password

And: User click on login button

Then: User can successfully login

And: Thank you message should appear

Scenario: User not able to login

Given: user is on login page

When: User type correct username

And: User type wrong password

And: User click on login button

Then: User cannot successfully login

And: Wrong password message is appeared

Scenario: User not able to login

Given: user is on login page

When: User type wrong username

And: User type correct password

And: User click on login button

And: User cannot successfully login

And: Username is wrong message appear

Scenario: User should not be able to login

Given: user is on login page

When: User type username

And: In the password must contain symbol, capital letter and number

And: Use click on login button

Then: User cannot successfully login without contain conditions in the password

And: In the password must contain the symbol, capital letter and number, message should appear

And not able to login successfully

Scenario: User not able to login

Given: user is on login page

When: User type username

And: User type password

And password does not contain space

And if the user put space in the password

And: Use click on login button

Then: User cannot successfully login

And: Put the correct password message will appear

Scenario: User not able to login

Given: user is on login page

When: User type correct username

And: User does not type password

And: Leave space empty

And: Use click on login button

Then: User cannot successfully login

And: The message should appear like, password required

Scenario: User not able to login

Given: user is on login page

When: User does not type username

And: keep the username space empty

And: User type correct password

And: Use click on login button

Then: User cannot successfully login

And: Username name required message is appeared

Scenario: User not able to login

Given: User is on login page

When: User does not type username

And: Leave username blank

And: User dose not type password

And: Leave password blank

And: Use click on login button

Then: User cannot successfully login

And: The message is appeared like username and password must required

